

Coleman Solis

Department of Bioethics, National Institutes of Health
10 Center Drive, Suite 1C118, Bethesda, MD, 20892
(301) 496-2429 | coleman.solis@nih.gov | coleman.solis@gmail.com

CURRENT

Pre-Doctoral Fellow, National Institutes of Health, Department of Bioethics

Research Mentors: Dr. David DeGrazia, Dr. Marion Danis

EDUCATION

Pomona College

BA, Philosophy
GPA: 3.73

Claremont, CA
Fall 2015-Winter 2018

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Pomona College

Senior Literature Review: Philosophy Department

Readers: Dr. Julie Tannenbaum, Professor of Philosophy at Pomona College
Dr. Michael Green, Professor of Philosophy at Pomona College
Project: "A Survey of Prominent Metaethical Views"

Claremont, CA
Fall 2018

Pomona College

Mellon-Mays Research Fellowship

Advisor: Dr. Amy Kind, Professor of Philosophy at Claremont McKenna College Research Paper "Desperate Choices, Transformative Experiences" presented at 2018 Mellon-Mays Regional Conference, Los Angeles, CA.

Claremont, CA
Summer 2018

Carle Foundation Hospital

Ethics Internship

Advisor: Robert E. Cranston, M.D.
Project: Comprehensive review of cases brought before the Carle Foundation Hospital
Ethics Committee.
Completed Research Paper, "A Retrospective Review of 18 years of Ethics Consults at a Community Hospital" presented at Center for Bioethics & Human Dignity conference in Summer 2019.

Urbana, IL
Summer 2017

Pomona College/UCLA

Independent Study: Philosophy

Advisor: Dr. Julie Tannenbaum
Course Title: A New Objection to Moral Relativism
Research paper, "A New Objection to Moral Relativism" presented at 2017
Mellon-Mays Regional Conference, Albuquerque, NM.

Claremont, CA and Los Angeles, CA
Summer-Fall 2017

HONORS AND AWARDS

IRTA Fellowship, National Institutes of Health

Morton O. Beckner Prize

2019-present
2018

Award given for exceptional philosophical senior projects at Pomona College.
Fellowship, Mellon-Mays Undergraduate Fellowship ($25,000) 2017-Present
Alain Locke Fellow, PIKSI Institute at MIT 2018

WORK AND SERVICE EXPERIENCE

Caregiver, Sinai In-Home Care 2019-Present
Provided direct care to seniors with disabilities.

Writing and Philosophy Mentor, Pomona College Fall 2017-Winter 2018
Met with students in Pomona College classes – of all disciplines, but with a special focus on philosophy – to discuss their ideas and workshop their papers; Organized and held meetings with first-year students in introductory writing courses “Medical Ethics” (2017) and “Reasons, Actions, and Events” (2018) to discuss their papers.

Community Liaison, Pomona College Philosophy Department Fall 2016-Spring 2018
Organized and hosted events for the Pomona College philosophical community.

President, Pomona College Musicians’ Coalition Fall 2016-Spring 2018
Organized and hosted musical showcases at Pomona college; organized events for the Pomona musical community.

Sponsor, Pomona College Office of Housing and Resident Life Fall 2016-Spring 2017
Lived with and assisted first-year students in beginning their college experience.

SKILLS

French - Proficient

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Philosophical Association – Student Member 2018-Present

REFERENCES

Dr. Julie Tannenbaum

Professor of Philosophy and Chair of Philosophy Department, Pomona College julie.tannenbaum@pomona.edu; (909) 607-0850

Dr. Amy Kind

Russel K. Pitzer Professor of Philosophy, Claremont-McKenna College
amy.kind@cmc.edu; (909) 607-3782